Resumen de la presentación por Linda Eastlick:

Los mapas actuales de los distritos de Supervisores y de la Universidad Comunitaria fueron presentados. La presentación Power Point, Una Visión General del Proceso, se discutió. La discusión incluyó por qué el Condado de Gila tiene que redistribuir los distritos, la Constitución de los EE.UU. y el principio de una persona, un voto; la Ley de Derechos Electorales, el papel de la Comisión de Delimitación, el uso de consultores, el Censo del Condado de Gila, las poblaciones minoritarias y los distritos de mayoría-de-minoría, los Principios de Redistribución de Distritos del Condado de Gila adoptados por la Junta de Supervisores el 19 de abril de 2011, la invitación a los ciudadanos a participar y la participación pública, de cómo funcionará el proceso de redistribución de distritos, de las reuniones futuras para redistribución y las actividades de redistribución de distritos hasta e incluyendo la versión final del plan adoptado por la Junta de Supervisores.

Se revisaron los folletos disponibles, incluso el documento de "Lo Que Usted Necesita Saber Sobre el Comentario Público en el Proceso de la Redistribución de Distritos." Los tres métodos que se pueden utilizar por los ciudadanos para hacer comentarios y/o presentar mapas fueron señalados específicamente (ya sea por hacer un comentario y enviarlo en la forma prevista, o por dibujar o colorear los límites de los distritos en el mapa como les gustaría a ellos verlos y enviar en el mapa con sus comentarios; o mediante la utilización de la herramienta de mapeo en línea para crear un mapa y presentarlo en línea). Los recintos de votación donde residen actualmente los funcionarios elegidos y el calendario tentativo del proceso fueron discutidos. Se demostró cómo usar el programa interactivo de mapeo basado en la Web y se les refirió a los ejemplos en los folletos.
